"REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GOVERNOR GENERALS BODY GUARD At the Coronation of King Edward VII., 1902.

No less than eight non-commissioned officers of the Body Guard were detailed to form part of the contingent of Canadian troops despatched to London under command of Lieut. -Col. Pellatt, Q.O.R., to participate in the street pageants arranged to take place in connection with the coronation of Their Majesties King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra, which was set for June 26th, 1902. The regiment's representatives on the contingent were: Sergeants W. S. Coleman, George Little, E. Luttrell. F. D. Burkholder, George Smith, F. E. Cadden (vice Squadron Sergeant-Major II. Logan, who could not accept the appointment), W. B. Wright, and Lance-Sergeant B. S. Warren

Shortly after the regrettable sudden postponement of the coronation, due to the tragic sickness of His Majesty, an event which plunged the whole of his vast empire into gloom and loyal anxiety, the coronation contingent, after being reviewed with the other colonial contingents by His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, returned to Canada. When, after the happy recovery of His Majesty, August 9th was fixed for the postponed ceremony, the Militia Department despatched a second very small cavalry contingent of one officer and thirteen men, under command of Lieut-Col. Turner, V.C., D.S.O., to form part of the colonial escort of Their Majesties"
